

UnKoch My Campus, March 2018

Table of Koch-affiliated scholars at the Ludwig von Mises Institute

Mises Institute "Associated Scholar"	Charles Koch Foundation Funding	Association of Private Enterprise Education
Walter Block, Loyola University	PI on Koch grant , received $276,000 from CKF since 2008, jumping from $24,000 in 2015 to $48,000 in 2016.	Member
Jeffery Herbener, Grove City College	Directs " Koch Fellowship program " at Center of Vision and Values, received $410,924 from CKF since 2006, up from $48,075 in 2015 to $56,600 in 2016
Bruce Benson, Texas Tech/Florida State	$3,335,883: PI on 2008-2016 Markets and Institutions Program, received from CKF, $65,000 2016 visiting scholar at Texas Tech's Koch funded Free Market Institute	Past APEE President
William Boyes, Arizona State University	$1,978,377 (2014-16): Founding Director of CKF funded Center for Economic Liberty	Member
Peter Calcagno, College of Charleston	$343,055 (2008-16): PI on repeated CKF grants for Institute for the Study of Capitalism, up from $8,000 in 2015 to $84,500 in 2016	APEE Exec. Board
Randall Holcombe, Florida State University	Affiliate of past and current program at FSU, the Koch-funded Hilton Center, PI of CKF funds for student libertarian groups	Member
Alexandre Padilla, Metropolitan State University of Denver	$127,840 (2008-15) PI on CKF grants for Exploring Economic Freedom Project, IHS faculty 2012-present, professional editor (2013)	APEE Executive Board
Benjamin Powell, Texas Tech	$5,527,800 (2013-16): Director Free Market Institute, up from $2,034,500 in 2015 to $3,368,300 in 2016. Ph.D. GMU, Suffolk, fellow with the Mercatus Center's Global Prosperity Initiative	Past APEE President
Richard Vedder, Ohio State University	Described "directly and indirectly" receiving CKF funding	APEE award
Christopher Westley, Florida Gulf Coast University	2010-2012 CKF Grant for the Promotion of Political Economy, in a department that received $230,546 (2008-15)	Member, Referee for APEE Journal, Member
G. P. Manish, Troy University	Koch graduate fellow at Suffolk (2008-2011), affiliate of Troy's Johnson Center, $1,110,960 (2010-15)	Member
Gregory Dempster, Hampden-Sydney College	Faculty affiliate to Center for the Study of Political Economy which received $257,100 (2006-16)	Member
William Butos, Trinity College	In an economics department that has received $112,753 (2008-15)	Member, Editorial Board
Edward Stringham, Trinity College	In an economics department that has received $112,753 (2008-15)	Past President, Journal Editor
George Bittlingmayer, University of Kansas	Involved in hiring a $145,000 salaried Koch professor at the University of Kansas , and participant in Mercatus Center retreat for Chiefs of Staff
Marshall DeRosa, Florida Atlantic University	Received at least $51,000 (2013-2015) from CKF to Florida Atlantic University , jumping from $8,000 in 2016 to $32,000 in 2016
Per Bylund, Oklahoma State	$205,500 (2015-16) - Co-PI and administrator at Oklahoma State Institute

University	for Study of Free Enterprise (whose mission includes studying “ the psychological and moral fallacy of income equality and “social justice” ”), (between 2013-15) Research Professor at the Baylor University and the Baugh Center for Entrepreneurship and Free Enterprise ($443,263 ), IHS Fellow 2008-2012
Robert Murphy, Texas Tech	Research assistant professor 2014-present at Free Market Institute, Senior Economist at the Koch-founded Institute for Energy Research [2016:173,380, 2015: $66,404, 2014: $23,628]
Patrick Newman, Florida Southern College	In 2017, Patrick Newman was hired at the Koch-funded Center for Free Enterprise at Florida Southern University. Newman’s Ph.D was from Koch’s George Mason University economics department, and between 2012 and 2017 , he received three Mises Institute fellowships, three Institute for Humane Studies fellowships, and seven Mercatus fellowships.
Art Carden	PI according to his CV, Art Carden has “administered grants from the Charles G. Koch Charitable Foundation 2008-Present” at Rhodes College and Samford University, totaling $186,300. Adjunct Program officer in Economics with the Institute for Humane Studies and a member of the Adjunct Faculty of the Ludwig von Mises Institute. ( Samford faculty profile ). Carden is a frequent contributor to the Mises Institute publications .
Robert Higgs, Independent Institute	Mercatus 2015-16 F.A. Hayek Distinguished Visiting Scholar , Mercatus’s Global Prosperity Initiative policy analyst 2009	APEE Distinguished Scholar 1993